

NC American Medical Association Delegation Job Description

The responsibility of an AMA Delegate/Alternate Delegate is to bring the grassroots concerns and opinions of the membership before the AMA House of Delegates, and to report to your actions of the house and the latest scientific, socioeconomic, and ethical information impacting the practice of medicine.

Position: NC American Medical Association Delegate

Term: Two years (January – December)

Position: NC American Medical Association Alternate Delegate

Term: Two years (January – December)

Qualifications to be a Delegate/Alternate Delegate to the AMA House of Delegates:

- a. Be an AMA member.
- b. Elected or selected by the principal governing body or the membership of the sponsoring organization.
- c. At least 1 member of each delegation is encouraged to be involved in the governance of their sponsoring organization.

AMA Delegate Responsibilities:

- a. Serve as part of the NCMS Delegation at the direction of the Delegation Chair and pursuant to policies adopted by the NCMS Board of Directors.
- b. Participate in planning sessions scheduled by the Delegation Chair.
- c. Attend AMA House of Delegates meetings.
- d. Maintain an active NCMS membership.

The AMA House of Delegates meets in June and November.